This small section of Highland Avenue will be closed to traffic Monday through Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 8:15 a.m. until additional safety equipment can be installed.

LaGrange High School authorities have identified safety concerns with students crossing the street by the new gym and the school's main campus.

The City of LaGrange plans to install the needed equipment as soon as possible.

Motorists are encouraged to use an alternate route if possible and use caution when driving in the area.
