

LAGRANGE
GEORGIA

Media Release
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
September 7, 2018

LaGrange Electric Crews Working in Blakely, Assisting in Power Restoration Following Hurricane Michael

LaGrange, Ga. September 7, 2018 – The City of LaGrange electric crews are in Blakely, Georgia assisting with power restoration following the damage caused by Hurricane Michael.

LaGrange Utility Workers in Blakely

Blakely, Georgia is twenty miles east of Dothan.

Municipal utilities work together to help each other following major storm events like Hurricane Michael.

The following LaGrange Utility workers are assisting in Blakely:

Bubba Welborn, Johnny Blakley, Ben Braswell, Chase Kennedy, James Hembree, Marcus Hunt, and Kyle Nixon.

City of LaGrange Utility Workers in Blakely

“We are very proud of our electric employees for volunteering to help a neighboring utility following Hurricane Michael.” Said LaGrange Utilities Director Patrick Bowie.

“As small municipalities, we rely on joint action and mutual aid to restore service to our customers whenever there is a major storm event. Our efforts are coordinated through Electric Cities of Georgia, and in the past we have sent crews as far away as Key West, Florida and western Maryland.”

Media Contact: Katie Mercer Van Schoor, City of LaGrange Marketing/Communications Manager, (706) 883-2055 or kvanschoor@lagrangega.org

To keep up with the latest news involving the City of LaGrange, go to www.lagrangega.org or follow us on Facebook at facebook.com/lagrangegov, Twitter at @lagrangegov, & Instagram at instagram.com/cityoflagrangega

###