LaGrange Police and Fire Departments Host Youth Summer Camp

LaGrange, Ga. June 4, 2018 – The LaGrange Police and Fire Departments are hosting its annual Youth Summer Camps this month.

June 4-8 youth ages 9-13 years old will participate in the camp and June 11-15 youth ages 7-9 will participate in the camp.

The camp is free and open to the public. It is already full and has a waiting list.

It's been a successful tool for the LaGrange Police Department and the LaGrange Fire Department to educate our youth for the past three decades.

Kids participated in a fire drill simulation Monday

Monday, the kids learned what to do in case of a fire emergency in the home through a simulation in the LaGrange Fire Safety House.

Tuesday, kids will be treated to a static display of all the area law enforcement.

The media is welcome to attend.
